

Job Title: Senior Analyst – Content Development

Reports To: Unit Head – Content Development

Responsible for: NA

Summary of Functions:

Responsible for creation of interactive, animated and pedagogically rich e-learning Math content pertaining to various syllabi by working with a team of people.

Skills Required

1. Should demonstrate high mathematical competence and have a strong interest in Math education.
2. Should have very good communication and writing skills. Should also possess good project management skills.
3. Should understand the needs of students and teachers, and should be able to relate to the challenges faced by them in learning and teaching Math.
4. Should be able to come up with innovative and creative ways of teaching Math concepts and enjoy problem solving.
5. Teaching experience in the US will be required.

Job Specifications

M.Sc graduate with 2-4 years of relevant experience with proficiency in Math.